

TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

Must be signed and returned to the editor-in-chief of the journal before the manuscript can be considered for publication

The transfer of copyright from author to publisher must be clearly stated in writing to enable the publisher to assure maximum dissemination of the author's work. Therefore, the following agreement, executed and signed by the author, is required with each manuscript submission. (If the article is a "work made for hire" it must be signed by the employer.)

The article entitled is herewith submitted for publication in Journal of Islamic Politics. It has not been published before, and its copyright isn't transferred to any other journals. It contains no matter that is scandalous, obscene, libelous, or otherwise contrary to law. It is completely appropriate to publication principles of Journal of Islamic Politics. When the article is accepted for publication, I, as the author, hereby agree to transfer to Journal of Islamic Politics all rights, including those pertaining to electronic forms and transmissions, under existing copyright laws, except for the following, which the author(s) specifically retain(s):

1. The right to make further copies of all or part of the published article for my use in classroom teaching;
2. The right to reuse all or part of this material in a compilation of my own works or in a textbook of which I am the author;
3. The right to make copies of the published work for internal distribution within the institution that employs me.

I agree that copies made under these circumstances will continue to carry the copyright notice that appeared in the original published work. I agree to inform my co-authors, if any, of the above terms. I certify that I have obtained written permission for the use of text, tables, and/or illustrations from any copyrighted source(s), and I agree to supply such written permission(s) to Ali Ihsan Kahraman upon request.
